

PAPERS OF J. ALLAN COAD

The collection includes subject files and scrapbooks with material on Mr. Coad himself, the Coad family, the Carter Family (the family of his first wife), research on Porto Bello, where Mr. Coad lived for several years, his correspondence with his family and others, information about his business and legislative careers, speech drafts, and copies of some of his written works. The scrapbooks contain newspaper articles about his career and his family, as well as Maryland and world politics and government. [1971.003+ Mr. Coad's material is completely described.]